"Many of our youth grow up thinking it's them against the world, and I am here to let them know that ABSOLUTELY not true. I want them to see that people do want to help, and in turn hope they can help others and see that service isn't a chore, it is a privilege. C.O.O.L. Kids gives me the avenue to work with amazing people to create outstanding results. I believe in C.O.O.L Kids because I see the passion to create a better community in all of the members and am honored to be a part of an organization that is run on this principle."
